ABOUT IFASC

MISSION STATEMENT

IFASC's Mission is to assist Indiana surgical centers to excel as a distinct healthcare model for the delivery of safe and affordable surgical care.

VISION AND VALUES STATEMENTS

- IFASC strives to be attentive to changes in the healthcare environment and to adapt accordingly for the benefit of their members.
- IFASC values the knowledge of their members based on their years of experience in the industry.
- IFASC's primary concerns are patient safety and satisfaction, and the association strives to be responsive to the needs and concerns of patients electing to have their surgical experience in the ambulatory surgery setting.
- IFASC values and respects the great diversity of ideas held by their members, and the association encourages open dialogue amongst members that does not activate (or insight) the anti-trust laws.
- IFASC shares concern about the cost of healthcare and focuses on assisting their members to provide the highest quality care at the lowest cost while maintaining the financial viability of their organization.
- IFASC believes in working environments that combine professionalism, quality patient care, employee satisfaction and enjoyment.
- IFASC believes in assisting surgical centers to maintain the provision of quality care through the provision of educational opportunities that give them the information needed to comply with state and federal mandates as well as maintaining their credentials and improving leadership skills.
- IFASC believes in building a community that promotes open sharing of ideas and knowledge between the association and other stakeholders in the field of ambulatory surgery.

SPEAKER BIOS

Jamey Burrows

Jamey has 25 years of experience in public safety and Incident Command work. He serves as a Co-owner, Treasurer, and Hazmat Branch Director for Vantage Point Consulting, based in Indianapolis. He is also a Captain for the Fishers Fire Department, Fire Chief for the Chesterfield – Union Township Fire Department, and Liaison Officer for the District 5 Incident Management Team. Jamey serves as a Hazmat Specialist for Indiana Task Force 1. He has managed hundreds of emergency incidents over the years and been on disaster deployments to Indiana, Texas, Louisiana, New York and Puerto Rico.

Ellen Dunnigan

Ellen Dunnigan is the competent and confident leader's secret weapon and trusted confidant. She founded Accent On Business in 2002 as an executive presence and professional communication advisory firm. She's been an advisor within many industries, including healthcare, municipalities, professional sports, politics, e-commerce, engineering, professional services, and others.

Ellen's executive coaching is focused on executive presence and professional communication, including public speaking. She demystifies the "vibe" that leaders with professional presence exude and provides practical steps and resources to guide those wanting to develop their confident and competent image. Ellen is known for her practical "how to" style. Her coaching in public speaking and professional communication skills shows leaders how to say what they need or want to say, while looking and feeling their confident and influential BEST.

Ellen is a master trainer in DiSC, emotional intelligence, Motivation by Appreciation, and other leadership surveys and tools. She holds Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Speech Pathology, and post-graduate training in leadership, business, and organizational development. Ellen has direct experience in the board room, investor relations calls, high-level executive summaries, and complex organizational structures. She has been the speaking coach for the Richard G. Lugar Excellence in Public Service Series and Purdue's "Entrepreneurship Academy", among others. She is a current Board Director with the Indianapolis chapter of the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO) and a member of several local and national organizations. She and her husband, Patrick, are native Buckeyes now living in Indianapolis.

Caryn Fink, BSN, RN, CASC

Caryn Fink began her nursing career on a post-surgical floor in a local hospital. Caryn then began her career in the ASC setting as the lead OR circulator in an eye center. She went back to the hospital setting for seven years as OR circulator and charge nurse. Caryn then had the opportunity in 2004 to build and open Sycamore Springs Surgery Center in Indianapolis where she serves as administrator. Caryn earned her CASC credential in 2008.

Erika Johnson

Erika Johnson currently serves as a National Account Executive for Intalere, a Group Purchasing and Solutions provider for healthcare facilities. In her current role, Erika analyzes current and prospective members' overall facility spend and provides cost reduction opportunities that are unique to the member's service lines, spend and strategic goals. She manages the relationship between Intalere and IFASC to ensure members receive the best possible pricing on their supply spend through an aggregated program available to all IFASC members.

Prior to her current role, Erika held the positions of Director of Member Solutions and Account Manager, working with Non-Acute Intalere members to enhance supply chain management opportunities and reduce their operating costs. Erika was recognized for outstanding sales performance in 2017 by receiving the Intalere Account Manager of the Year Award and Intalere Chairman's Award. Prior to joining Intalere in 2015, Erika gained 10 years of healthcare supply chain and purchasing experience with a healthcare manufacturer and an acute care facility in Central Indiana.

Erika earned her Bachelor of Arts degree from Franklin College (Franklin, IN) and her Master of Business Administration degree from Indiana Wesleyan University (Marion, IN).

Cathy Montgomery

Cathy is Founder and President of Excellentia Advisory Group, a consulting and development company serving both the surgical industry through ASCs as well as surgical hospitals and office-based surgical practices. She developed this niche based on her previous Regional Management experience from NovaMed prior to its acquisition by Surgery Partners.

Her expertise includes teaching compliance to CMS Conditions of Coverage, surgery center accreditation and assisting ASCs with their survey readiness. Cathy spends her days assisting clients by conducting onsite mock surveys, assisting with Plans of Correction, writing/editing policies, regulatory compliance training through telephonic consult, webinars and live seminars. Cathy is CASC credentialed and became an AAAASF surveyor in 2016.

Kara Newbury

Kara Marshall Newbury serves as regulatory counsel for the Ambulatory Surgery Center Association (ASCA), and through this role spearheads ASCA's federal regulatory efforts. Prior to this role, Kara coordinated state legislative, regulatory and public affairs for the association. Before joining ASCA, Kara served as the assistant director, state government affairs at the National Association of Professional Employer Organizations and staff attorney and director of government relations for the Community Financial Services Association. She began her career working for the Ohio Senate, and has sixteen years of state and federal government experience. Kara received her undergraduate and law degree from The Ohio State University.

Janet Strong, RN, BSN, CNOR, CRCST

Janet Strong was an operating room nurse for over 20 years, scrubbing and circulating various specialties focusing on Ortho. She was also the OR educator.

She currently is employed by STERIS Corporation as a Clinical Education Specialist. In her role, she provides education to the Sterile Processing Departments, Operating Rooms, and Infection Preventionists. She also assists with process evaluation. Janet also contributes to the curriculum development of programs on Steris University.

Janet is a member of IAHCSSM and AORN.
